

NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST
EDUCATION AND SCHOLARSHIPS COMMITTEE

December 1, 2024

Dear Counselors, Ombudsmen, and Administrators,

Are you aware the Native Daughter of the Golden West (NDGW) Education and Scholarships Committee has scholarships available to attend universities, colleges, vocational programs, trade schools, or online courses based in California? These funds can be used for any expense related to education.

Scholarships are available to those who are California-born, Members of the NDGW, or eligible to affiliate with the NDGW, or have a familial relationship to a Member except as noted below. Applicants must be seniors or graduates of an accredited high school, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50, or its equivalent or have obtained a G.E.D. (Graduate Equivalency Degree or General Educational Diploma), or Certificate of Completion.

The following scholarships are available:

Scholarships up to a maximum of $2,000 each may be awarded to students enrolled at any University of California (UC) or any California State University (CSU) campus.

Annie L. Adair Scholarships up to a maximum of $2,000 each may be awarded to students majoring in business or social welfare at an accredited California university or college.

Sue J. Irwin Scholarships up to a maximum of $2,000 each may be awarded to students of an accredited California university, college, vocational program, trade school, or online course.

Applicants must be sponsored by a NDGW Subordinate Parlor. If you have applicants interested in these scholarships, please contact Committee Chairman PGP Dawn Dunlap at NDGW.edu@gmail.com or 805-395-0113. She will provide contact information for a Subordinate Parlor in your area.

Application packets must be postmarked by April 11, 2025. All applicants will be notified of the outcome of the Committee's deliberations in May.

Thank you for sharing this information with potential applicants. It is a goal of the NDGW to encourage and enable California students to further their education. If you would like to receive this information by email in the future, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Dawn Dunlap, PGP
Chairman of NDGW Education and Scholarships Committee
