LPC's American Red Cross Blood Drive

FACTS about blood needs:

- Every two seconds someone in the U.S. needs blood.
- More than 41,000 blood donations are needed every day.
- A total of 30 million blood components are transfused each year in the U.S.
- The average red blood cell transfusion is approximately 3 pints.
- The blood type most often requested by hospitals is Type O.
- The blood used in an emergency is already on the shelves before the event occurs.
- Sickle cell disease affects more than 70,000 people in the U.S. About 1,000 babies are born with the disease each year. Sickle cell patients can require frequent blood transfusions throughout their lives.
- More than 1.6 million people were diagnosed with cancer last year. Many of them will need blood, sometimes daily, during their chemotherapy treatment.
- A single car accident victim can require as many as 100 pints of blood.

Program Review and Program Level Student Learning Outcomes

– Dr. Karin Spirn and Dr. Tina Inzerilla

All instructional and non-instructional programs are invited to attend a breakout session in which we will continue working on the program update forms. There have been major changes to the forms, in particular to the SLO sections. This is your chance to continue to work on your planning for fall.

Rooms:

Accreditation Update – Elena Cole Room: 2420

This session will provide Accreditation Teams with a chance to report on their progress as they are working on their part of the Self-Evaluation Report, describing problems and asking questions that have arisen. Information regarding the Recommendations from the last report, Eligibility Requirements, and consistent approaches to citing evidence will also be addressed. Staff and faculty from across the campus who are contributing to the Self-Evaluation Report or who are interested in learning more about LPC's current work on Accreditation are encouraged to attend.

Equity Plan - Michelle Zapata & Jill Oliveira

Room: 2490

Las Positas College is enriched by the diversity of all its students. The Governor has proposed additional funding to address underperforming student populations. This November, every California Community College is required to submit a Student Equity Plan that addresses student access and success. At this session, you will learn how our college is approaching the Student Equity Plan and participants will have an opportunity to shape our plan.
