

Population: New First-Time Transfer and/or Associate Degree-Seeking College Students

1. Each fall, about 9,300 students attend LPC. How many are new first-time college students who would like to transfer and/or earn an associate degree?
2. Of new first-time college students who would like to transfer and/or earn an associate degree:
 - a. What percentage identify as female?
 - b. What percentage are full-time (12 units or more)?
 - c. What is the top city of residence?
 - d. What percentage only want an associate degree (i.e., they do not want to transfer)?
 - e. Of the students who want to transfer, what percentage want to earn an associate degree prior to transferring?

3. Of all new first-time transfer and/or degree-seeking students, what percentage successfully complete 15 units by the end of their first fall semester?
4. Of new first-time transfer and/or degree-seeking students who are full-time, what percentage successfully complete 15 units by the end of their first fall semester?
5. Of all new first-time transfer and/or degree-seeking students, what percentage successfully complete 30 units in their first year?
6. Of new first-time transfer and/or degree-seeking students who are full-time, what percentage successfully complete 30 units in their first year?