

LPC Mission Statement

Las Positas College is an inclusive, learning-centered, equity-focused environment that offers educational opportunities and support for completion of students' transfer, degree, and career-technical goals while promoting lifelong learning.

LPC Planning Priorities

❖ Establish a knowledge base and an appreciation for equity; create a sense of urgency about moving toward equity; institutionalize equity in decision-making, assessment, and accountability; and build capacity to resolve inequities.

❖ Increase student success and completion through change in college practices and processes: coordinating needed academic support, removing barriers, and supporting focused professional development across the campus.

5. Reports

5.1. SLO Chair Report

- Data was not loaded to META in time for Flex Day.
- Faculty should be reminded to enter assessment data and verify all classes and sections are available in META.
- SLO coordinator currently has access to student-level data, which raises FERPA concerns; META said this should be a straightforward fix.

5.2. Administrator's Report

- No report

6. PLO/SAO Reviews

7. Discussion Items

7.1. Program Review – SLO Section

Presenter: Karin Spirn

- Task is to draft the SAO/SLO section of Program Review.
- The Program Review Committee aims to make the process more accessible and less intimidating for faculty.
- There are legal and ethical concerns regarding the disaggregation of data, particularly when the data is incomplete or not robust. Additionally, faculty without appropriate training may have access to identity-related information.
- A broader question raised; should data be disaggregated to evaluate learning and student success?
- Issue raised that required disaggregation is an ethical concern.

7.2. Three-Year Plan process review

- Review of templates

7.3. Flex Day Recap

- Two sessions offered; overall attendance was low. New faculty attended and the process was reviewed.
- During the second session, Spring 2026 data was not available, so no Assessments were able to start.
